

About the Southern Indiana Wind Ensemble

The Southern Indiana Wind Ensemble (SIWE) is a community-based ensemble made up of musicians from all walks of life. Our concert programs include a variety of challenging wind band pieces with a focus on both traditional favorites and recent additions to the repertoire. As an ensemble, SIWE aims to:

- sustain a high-quality performance outlet for its members
- encourage a lifelong pursuit of opportunities for musical performance
- connect with young musicians through side-by-side concerts and educational outreach
- engage with a diverse audience
- enhance the greater artistic community
